THE INEVITABLE DESTINY OF ST. DOMINGO.

Terms of the Treaty with President Baez.

Proposed Changes in the Tariff and Tax Bills.

More Troubles in Prospect for Tennessee.

Radicals Demanding Another Reconstruction.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9, 1870.

The St. Domingo Question—Probability of Annexation—Terms of the Treaty—How it will be Arranged.

The treaty for the annexation of St. Domingo to the United States was negotiated by President Baez and the Commercial Agent, Mr. Perry, at the city of St. Domingo. This treaty, with a secret message to the President of the United States, was sent to the Senate on Monday. Of the truth of this statement there is no doubt. The governing motive for the acquisition of St. Domingo is its geographical position to this country as a means of national defense, as well as its general maritime advantages; and hence, as a preliminary, the lease of Samana was effected and the jurisdiction of the United States established over that part of the territory of St. Domingo.

Several Senators, who are cognizant of the particulars of the negotiation, privately assert that St. Domingo is of as much importance to us as the island of Cuba, if not more, and that the acquisition of the one will more easily lead to the acquisition of the other. It may be that the President of the United States, in his message recommending the ratification of the treaty, will briefly state his reasons for the acquisition. It is certain, however, that he has stated them to some of his most intimate political friends.

Although the text of the treaty cannot now be publicly made known there is no doubt that it contains the following propositions, namely:

First—The United States shall pay the sum of $1,000,000.

Second—This money is to be devoted to the liquidation of all the obligations of the republic of St. Domingo, including the redemption of its currency, which is represented to be of comparatively small amount.

Third—In case the obligations to be assumed by the United States shall exceed the before mentioned sum of $1,000,000 the public lands of St. Domingo are pledged for the security of the excess.

Fourth—The liquidation of the obligations is to be entrusted to commissioners, one to be appointed by each of the contracting parties.

Fifth—In consideration of the discharge of these obligations St. Domingo cedes to the United States all its ports, docks, customs houses and all other public buildings, armaments, &c., and complete jurisdiction over the territory.

Sixth—St. Domingo to be annexed, or acquired as a Territory, and not as a State, and subject to the legislation of Congress, in the same manner as the Territories of the United States.

Seventh—The treaty is to be valid to all intents and purposes when ratified by the Senate of the United States and confirmed by the vote of a majority of the citizens of St. Domingo.

Object of the Visit of President Lopez's Son.

There is much said with regard to the visit of the son of President Lopez to this city. The truth is he comes here to represent the interests of his father and to induce the administration to renew diplomatic intercourse with Paraguay. The principal obstacle in the way of such renewal is the uncertainty of the present location of Lopez, it is not being positively known whether he is in his own or some other territory, and that at about the same time young Lopez arrived here information was received that the allies were the masters of Paraguay, and, therefore, the Lopez government was no longer in practical existence.

Changes in the Tariff and Tax Bills.

It is stated the President will send a message to Congress on the subject of the tariff and the tax bills. The President has come to the conclusion that the tariff bill, as it now stands, and, indeed, as the Committee of Ways and Means propose to change it, will not meet the demands of the country. The proposed increase of the free list, it is said, does not meet the views of the President for the reason that it does not go far enough. The President thinks the free list should be increased to a greater extent than proposed by the Ways and Means Committee, and the revenue out of duty should be raised by taxing what may be termed foreign business, which our people can do without.

With regard to the tax bill the President is of opinion that a large number of articles entering into general consumption can be safely relieved from the internal revenue tax.

Chief Justice Chase and the Fifteenth Amendment.

It is stated that Chief Justice Chase has written letters to such reform members of the Ohio Legislature as are in favor of the Fifteenth Amendment, and is said to be using his personal influence for this purpose. In conversation with a gentleman a few days ago he said he would be very much disappointed if the Ohio Legislature did not ratify the amendment. He thought, from his knowledge of the reform members elect, that most of them would vote for it.

More Trouble in Prospect in Tennessee—Revolutionary Course of the Conservatives.

The Tennessee Conservative Constitutional Convention meets to-morrow. The radical members of Congress from that State have received a large number of letters setting forth the probable action of the Convention. It appears from these letters that the Convention is to be called to order by the negroes of the State, and to abolish all the laws passed by the Legislature while the State was under radical rule; among other things, the ratification of the fourteenth article of amendment to the constitution of the United States. The radicals propose to wait and see what the Convention will do. Under the circumstances nothing can be done to relieve the radical defeat in Tennessee. Should the Convention, however, pass measures such as are predicted by the radicals the latter will dispute the admission of the Senators and Representatives elected to the Forty-second Congress on the ground that the State has broken faith with the federal government. An effort will then be made to reconstruct the State after the manner of Georgia, returning her back to military rule and carrying out of the Legislature all members who are unopposed to the fourteenth amendment.

A Grand Fiasco—The Proposed World's Fair in Washington.

The meeting of the World's Fair people held here last night was a slim affair. Indeed, none of the big names, such as Grant, Sherman and others, whose appearance had been vouchsafed for so positively, came to time. The speakers found great difficulty in keeping themselves warm, and seemed to take amusement from their own folly. Of course General Howard was there, and also the venerable George Thompson, both of whom can be dependably relied on when anything of this kind is up. It is now clear that the magnificent idea of holding a magnificent World's Fair in this capital of magnificent distances was the exclusive invention of two gentlemen, one of whom had a number of houses to let, while the other had just finished. Sensible people are putting a correct estimate on this whole affair.
